

Breakwater Creative Arts FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Isn't five weeks too long for one camp?

Actually the five weeks of commitment to our program flies by! Meanwhile, students are developing strong bonds with new friends and staff. We are also able to take on complex projects in all of the arts. Skills are developed more fully, and we leave with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment - especially after our Arts Festival Day!

2. Can I pick and choose the weeks of camp?

Breakwater Creative Arts plans the summer on a continuum. Miss a week and you miss a lot! We are working toward full theatre productions, concerts in dance and music, and complicated art projects that take time to complete.

3. Is there enough variety of activity in an arts camp?

We are incredibly varied in our activity selection. Sports with varsity coaches as instructors, music, multiple media of visual arts, dance, writing, and theatre.
