

Counselor - In - Training Program Information Sheet Breakwater Creative Arts - 2010

Breakwater Creative Arts is a summer program located at Breakwater School. The students are ages 7 to 14 years old and the "CIT"s are 15 to 18. The Counselor-In- Training Program is designed for high school students with an interest in the arts, science, writing, and/or sports, who enjoy working with children and in a cooperative, team environment. CIT' s work with the Program Director to create an individualized schedule for the summer, assisting with teaching classes which interest them and helping to maintain the camp. CITs also assist with supervising students at attendance, lunch, and checkout. They attend weekly Staff Meetings, the 2 daylong ORIENTATION prior to camp, assist with the set up and running of the Arts Festival on the last day of camp, and participate in the clean-up of the camp at the end of the program.

For six weeks (or one three week session) in the summertime, high school students benefit from being in a lively arts community (or outdoors playing sports - or both), participating in classes which interest them, as well as gaining experience with teaching. Modest stipends are awarded based on grade in school & experience. Cit's are accepted after an application and interview process with the program director. Applications are available on line or can be mailed out to you. Interviews are given by appointment only.
